Review Subject:

At 0800hrs PO Siller and I responded on a verbal dispute. Upon arrival P1/ stated she is having a verbal dispute with her brother P2/ over ownership of a vehicle. P1/ stated the car was willed to her by their mother after she passed away in June 2013. P1/ provided notarized documentation clearly indicating that she is now the person responsible of the vehicle NY-DAW8788. It should also be noted that P1/ also had the vehicle's keys, registration and title in her possession, vehicle was valid. P1/ stated she is unaware where the license plates for the vehicle are. P2/ claims he has no information on the whereabouts of the license plates. P1/ was provided with an MV78-b should the license plates remain missing. ROs responded with P1/ and P2/ to the private parking lot of 122 Union Ave. RO observed that P2/ had placed and illegal boot on vehicle/NY-DAW8788. RO advised P2/ to remove the boot from the vehicle as P2/ did not have the authority to boot any vehicles in this lot. It should be noted that this parking lot was clearly marked by a sign indicating it was the responsibility of SafeWay Towing to enforce any type of booting or towing activity at this parking lot. Both parties left the area without further incident both were advised to address the matter in civil court. (VAC issued, HQ advised)

Today Wednesday, July 17, 2013 Approx about 8:00 O'clock New Rochelle police was call to 99 Union Ave to handle a dispute attain to my late mother car that was park in a private lot. The car is register and insure under my late mother Alice Williams. The Car was left in possession of the young son Kevin Williams. My sister Felicia come to New York and call New Rochelle Police to tell them that car belong to her and that she wants to know where the plates for the car. She has no title for the car and I was telling the officers that I don't know anything about the car belonging to her. The car either belongs to my brother Kevin or all of us. None of us has seen anything stating otherwise. I told the officer that I was going file the death certificate with the court in White Plains to let the judge figure it out. The two officer decide to let my sister Felicia drive the car without no valid license plate. This is reason why I'm filing a report against the two New Rochelle Police officers. A. W
